

Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, 1861 - 1865
Department of Pennsylvania
Chief-of-Staff Fundraiser

Offered for raffle to benefit the 2023 Department of Pennsylvania Convention

A 16-inch Madame Alexander Doll portraying Mary Todd Lincoln. She is wearing a replica of her purple velvet dress with piping, the same as her mannikin in the Smithsonian's First Ladies display.

She has never been played with, still has her hangtag making her more valuable to collectors. She is also in her original blue box which is quite shopworn but bears the original price tag of $100.00 from Bullock's Department store.

Tickets are $1.00 apiece or 6 for $5.00.

You need not be present at the convention to win.

Send your check, name, USPS address, phone number and email address, include the number of tickets desired to:

Pat Meyers, Chief-of-Staff at 2300 Emmitsburg Road, Gettysburg, PA 17325.
